Jenn Ryan

Commercial Relationship Manager, Alerus President - HACC

Jennifer Ryan has over two decades of commercial banking experience. She earned a BA degree in Finance and Economics from the University of Michigan-Flint and a MBA from Metropolitan State University in Minneapolis. She began her banking career as a Credit Analyst in the Twin Cities market following several years working as a Finance Director in the environmental industry. In 2005 Jennifer relocated to the Duluth market with her family where she enjoys the beauty of living in the Northwoods.

Passionate in her role as a Relationship Manager, Jennifer aspires to improve upon the success of her clients and to contribute to the growing momentum of the business community in Duluth. Jennifer works closely with her clients to fully understand their financial needs and goals so as to better provide solutions in an ever-changing financial landscape.

Jennifer is extremely active in her beloved community, serving on the Executive Committees of both the Hermantown Area Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Downtown Council of Duluth. Additional commitments include participation on the Duluth Legacy Endowment Fund Committee and the Military Affairs Committee, an initiative of the Duluth Area Chamber of Commerce.

Living in Duluth provides a wealth of outdoor activities to enjoy with her son Benjamin, most notably being a hockey mom, skiing, hiking and swimming in beautiful Lake Superior on warm summer days.

Thanks for your service, Jenn!
