Patrick Malley

Account Executive, Consolidated Communications
HACC Board Member since 2016, Chamber IT Guru

Patrick is an Account Executive with Consolidated Communications, a publicly traded (NASDAQ: CNSL), nationwide Internet service provider and telecommunications company providing Internet access, data, phone and cloud services for business. What is now CCI's Hermantown office originally spun out of Minnesota Power as MP Telecom, which morphed into Enventis and joined the CCI family in 2014. He started in the Internet service provider business in 2003 and has constantly driven toward a goal of expanding rural availability of fast, reliable, and affordable communications infrastructure for our region's businesses.

"In 2014, our office was forced to find a new location after roughly 20 years in downtown Duluth. I was excited to offer Hermantown as an option to our Senior Management, and our site was selected in the Sugar Maple Crossing development. With an office now in Hermantown, I was excited to become more active in our Chamber of Commerce and was invited onto the Board. I am grateful for the opportunity to help guide our community with the best interests of our local businesses in mind. Hermantown holds so many small, family-owned businesses, as well as some of the country's largest retailers. Balancing the needs and understanding the challenges of any business, no matter the size, is near and dear to my heart."

Patrick is a native son of Hermantown, born and raised by the owners of a small business and educated in the Hermantown School District (1997). In 2001, Patrick received his Bachelor of Arts in Computer Science and Environmental Studies from St. John's University. In 2003, he and his wife Stacey (also HHS 97), returned to the town that they love to begin their careers and start a family. Today they have two children who are Hawks.

*"The greatness of a community is most accurately measured by the compassionate actions of it's members."
Corretta Scott King.*
